Lights, Camera, Action!

YOUR TASK:

- Choose your favourite book.
- Think about your favourite characters.

YOUR TASK:

Create your own puppet show based on your favourite book.

YOUR TASK:

Step 1: Create your puppet characters from the story using lollipop sticks and other materials. Be creative!

YOUR TASK:

Step 2: Create the background.

Use a shoe box or cereal box to create a stage. Think about the main setting of the story.

YOUR TASK:

Step 3: Act out and retell the story with your puppets.

You may have to write a script to help you or read your book!

RECORD THE SHOW!

Send them to me on Class Dojo.

YOUR TASK:

The children at school are really excited to make a puppet show for you at home!

We are looking forward to seeing your puppet shows too!

ENJOY!!!!

The end. Take a bow!
