

Have a go at writing your ending!

Write about your resolution:

Look back at your story map. What is the resolution? How does your character solve or fix the problem?

Write an ending:

Look back at your story map. What happens at the very end of your story?

My Example:

He shouted 'Help!'. There was no reply. He made his voice louder 'Help!'. Then there was a shadow in the distance getting closer. It was his friend Terry the Pterodactyl. Terry swooped in from above and reached out his claws. Dylan grabbed onto his claws and held them tight.

They flew higher and higher over the smoke. Finally they landed near home. Dylan had been saved. However mum was very angry and cross. She
